

EY Energy Alert / Amendments and new tax rules for the oil & gas industry published by the Mexican Tax Authorities

martes, 21 de julio de 2015

Dear Executive,

On July 13, 2015, Mexican Tax Authorities published in its web-site the fourth amendment to the Mexican Miscellaneous Tax Resolution for 2015 and several normative and non-binding criteria, which contains diverse regulations related to exploration and production of hydrocarbon activities in Mexico. Even though these regulations clarify certain provisions included in the Hydrocarbons Revenue Law and in the Hydrocarbons Law, there are still unclear matters that need to be regulated. The following link is a summary of the most important regulations related to exploration and production of hydrocarbon activities included in the Mexican Miscellaneous Tax Resolution for 2015.
